HEXHAM 100 HITS THE HILLS

Regulations are now available for the Hexham 100 Rally on August 16th, the new event from Hexham & District Motor Club will follow very much the format of the successful HRCR 100 series and be aimed firmly at introducing newcomers and novices to the historic rallying scene.

The event will also have quite a social side to it starting out with morning coffee before a series of regularities, all on smooth asphalt roads and with crews benefiting from a simple, straightforward road book, leads competitors to a lunch halt at a 17th century coaching inn in the picturesque former lead mining community of Allenheads.

Suitably refreshed, the route will then take in some classic roads as it heads back to the rally finish at the well known Dr. Syntax Inn where tea will be available while results are calibrated.

The rally will also appeal to more experienced crews as the route features a string of classic rally roads in the High Pennines, old favourites from former years including several which have featured in events such as Le Jog and Rally Of The Tests.

Entry fee for the event, including meals is a modest £49:95 and more information can be obtained from the Rally Secretary, Ed Graham by e-mailing edgraham@btinternet.com
